

Smith Family

Joseph and Martha Jane Northington Smith

They came to the Petersburg area from Shippensburg, Pa. most likely in the early 1850's, when they were relatively young people, perhaps newly married. They were most likely born in the 1830's. He was involved in railroad construction, having had a part in the building of the Shippensburg, Chambersburg lines in Pa. before coming to Va.

They were the parents of four daughters, who were most likely all born after they came to Va. They are listed below in their birth order.
